Sir(s)/Ma'am(s),

We write to you with great pleasure and appreciation for the overwhelming response received from your esteemed institutions regarding the 37th Bar Council of India National All-India Inter-University Moot Court Competition 2024. Given the enthusiastic participation and numerous requests from various participants, we wish to inform you that the schedule for the competition has been revised to better accommodate the needs and convenience of the young legal minds of our country.

Kindly note that this communication serves to formally withdraw the previous letter of invitation dated 18.09.2024 bearing No.BCI:D:5087/2024, and announce the revised dates for the competition. The 37th Bar Council of India National All-India Inter-University Moot Court Competition 2024 will now be held from 15th November to 17th November 2024 at the Unitedworld School of Law, Karnavati University, Uvarsad-Adalaj Road, Gandhinagar, Ahmedabad-382422, organized by the Bar Council of India and the Bar Council of India Trust, Pearl First.

We deeply value the enthusiastic response received and extend our sincere gratitude for the overwhelming support. We hope that this revision will provide ample time and opportunity for participants to prepare, ensuring that they can bring their best efforts to this esteemed competition.

It is with great pleasure that we extend a renewed invitation to all esteemed universities and centers of legal education across the nation for the revised 37th Bar Council of India National All-India Inter-University Moot Court Competition 2024. This prestigious event, hosted by the Bar Council of India and Bar Council of India Trust, Pearl First, is not merely a competition but a celebration of intellect, perseverance, and the spirit of legal education.

This moot court competition represents a unique opportunity for students to sharpen their skills, confront new challenges, and make their mark on the legal landscape of India. It is a platform that encourages students to exhibit their talent, knowledge, and commitment to the rule of law. We believe in the potential of our students to achieve greatness, and we encourage universities to select and sponsor their best teams, consisting of two mooters and one researcher.

Nominations will be accepted only through Vice-Chancellors, Registrars, Deans of the respective universities/departments, and, in the case of affiliated units/Centres of Legal Education, in consultation with the Principals or Heads of Departments. This is to ensure a unified and organized process of participation. Law colleges are urged to coordinate with their affiliating universities to ensure a seamless nomination process.

Participation in this competition is open to students pursuing an LL.B. degree course, and we encourage universities to inspire their students to rise to this extraordinary challenge. The experiences gained through participation will help shape their future careers, sharpen their advocacy skills, and provide the confidence needed to stand tall in any courtroom or legal forum.

We also recognize the importance of supporting students throughout their academic journey. While universities and respective Centres of Legal Education are encouraged to bear the travel expenses of their participants, the Bar Council of India Trust, Pearl First, will gladly offer second-class rail fare for any student whose institution is unable to provide travel support. The host university will ensure full boarding and lodging for all participants, allowing students to focus entirely on their performance during this prestigious event.

The competition offers numerous accolades, including National Merit Certificates, Winner and Runner-up University Trophies, Best Memorial Awards, Best Speaker Awards, and Gold Medals for the Best Male and Female Advocates in the final round. Scholarships of Rs. 1,000 per month for a year will also be awarded to top performers by the Bar Council of India, and outstanding briefs may be considered for publication in the Indian Bar Review.

In addition, the host university, under the aegis of the Bar Council of India and the Bar Council of India Trust, Pearl First, will also offer the following cash prizes:

- a. Rs. 2,00,000 to the Winner
- b. Rs. 1,00,000 to the 1st Runner-up
- c. Rs. 50,000 to the 2nd Runner-up
- d. Rs. 10,000 to the Best Speaker
- e. Rs. 7,500 to the 2nd Best Speaker
- f. Rs. 10,000 to the Best Memorial
- g. Rs. 7,500 to the 2nd Best Memorial

We request all universities, particularly those with multiple affiliated law colleges, to conduct internal selection rounds to identify the most deserving teams for representation. If a university with multiple affiliated colleges wishes to nominate more than one team, they may do so by indicating Team A, Team B, Team C, etc. In the event of over-subscription, we may have to limit the number of teams, but rest assured that we will make every effort to accommodate as many participants as possible.

We urge you to disseminate this communication as widely as possible, as it represents an extraordinary opportunity for your students. The names, batch/year, semester, course nomenclature of participating students, gender, mailing addresses, and contact details of the nominated students, along with the details of the faculty coordinator for each team, should be submitted to the Professors at Unitedworld School of Law by 25th October 2024 at the email addresses mentioned below, with a copy to mootcourtbciupf@gmail.com.

The earlier the nominations are submitted, the sooner your students can receive the moot problems and begin their preparations. This is more than just a competition; it is a stage where the future leaders of the legal profession can shine.

We are confident that your esteemed institution will rise to the occasion, sending teams that reflect the very best of your legal education programme and providing your students with the encouragement they need to excel.
